

Question: Legal tender laws in the US require all businesses to accept what for payment?

Response: It is illegal for a business to be cash-free in the US.

Correct Answer: There is no universal requirement in U.S. “Legal tender” means U.S. coins and currency can be used to discharge debts, not that all businesses must accept cash.

